

room B

You are a kid in 1970 and your family doesn't have food for Christmas. You are listening to the forbidden radio. You hear about the strikes on the streets and it turns out your father is taking part. Milicja puts him in jail and you visit him.

(search near the big kiss)

8th September 1968

Today, when I was listening to the Radio Free Europe with my parents, I heard that had set himself on fire! But I didn't hear why did he do that, because my mom came and covered my ears with her hands. I wonder what was his reason.

Find the photo of this man and find out his name and why did he do that.....

7th December 1970

Christmas is coming and my family doesn't have any food already. I didn't find anything in my shoe yesterday. I don't know what's going on.

13th December 1970

I haven't seen my dad the whole day. I'm worried and I see that mom is as well but she doesn't tell me anything. But I saw her reading some note and then hiding it in her 'Burda'.

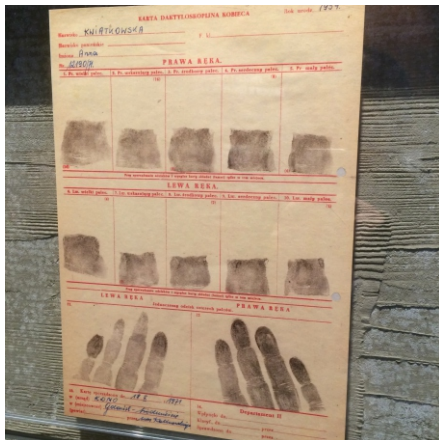

Where is dad? How does the place where he is look?

.....
.....

13th January 1971

Dad is finally home. I wanted to go to the kitchen but I saw mom and dad talking. I've never seen them more shocked. I overheard them talking about a girl called Anna Kwiatkowska, who was arrested just like dad. Parents were saying that 'she is such a little kid'. I wonder how old is she.

Search Anna Kwiatkowska's fingerprints and find out her birth date, how old was she when she got arrested?

room A

You are 10 years older. Your father is on the strike and you're getting to know what's going on

8th August 1980

Today dad came back from work really upset. He was talking about Anna Walentynowicz, a woman who worked in the crane just like him. She got fired today, just a few weeks before her retirement.

Find out why did the headmasters want to get rid of Anna Walentynowicz (look for the crane)

.....
.....
.....
.....

I ask myself why does she fight for other people's rights despite the risk of losing her job and her security.

15th August 1980

It's my 17th birthday today. But we are not really celebrating. My father is still in the shipyard striking. We don't know when is it going to end. Giving him bread through the gate, I saw that he didn't have the number on his helmet.

Find out why did workers remove the numbers from their helmets.....

.....
.....(map)

(spot on the date)

Today the strikes finally finished.

Look at the floor and find out how many days did the strike take What is the missing date in the diary?.....

room C

You are a teenager and you're discovering the independent culture

11th June 1981

This is my first time on the festival in, it really feels like we live somewhere where we can be free. I share my views with so many people.

What are the people on the picture doing?

.....

What made people feel free there?

.....

5th August 1981

I saw the poster of the movie

by

I want to go to see it with my friends but we will have to figure out how can we get the videotape.

Look at the mirrors on the ceiling. What word do you see?

.....

room D

You are 18 during the period of Martial Law.

13th December 1981

In the morning I came to the living room, my family was sitting there and watching the news where was announcing the implementation of Martial Law. I went out of home to see my friends. There were tanks on the streets. We went to one of my friends' house and we forgot that we couldn't leave it after so we had to stay overnight.

18th January 1982

Milicja captured me on the street wearing a I probably left it in their truck.

Find the item left in the truck. Find out what is it and why were people wearing it

.....
.....
.....

room E

You are in the young opposition.

7th May 1982

*I got out of jail yesterday. I've heard about the PELENGATOR, invented by Its use is to.....
.....*

13th April 1988

I joined 'FEDERACJA MŁODZIEŻY WALCZĄCEJ'

Translate this into German

.....

(do it all together)

3rd January 1983

Even though the martial law is ended, I still can't get over the way it influenced me. I still wake up at night hoping I don't see bars in my windows.

5th April 1989

This is the last day of the Round Table talks. I am surprised that there is only 1 involved.

(name:

.....)

4th June 1989

I'm going to the elections – the first partly free elections in Poland after the II World War finished! It's been years!!!

room F

You are grown up and watching Poland and Europe change.

5th June 1989

Happily my children will live in a free country. I hope that solidarity will stay among us!

Which country was the first and the last one where communism collapsed?

First one:..... when:.....

Last one:.....when:.....

What's written on the walls of the white labyrinth?

.....

room G

Now head to room G.

Try to translate John Paul II's quote into German together.

Now take your time for a reflection.

